

NEW OPPORTUNITY

Community Legal Clinic of York Region

Executive Director

$120,000 - $160,000

Richmond Hill, Ontario

"Legal Services for Low-Income People".

The Community Legal Clinic of York Region (CLCYR) is a not-for-profit organization which serves low-income residents of York Region. Staffed by lawyers, paralegals and support staff, they offer free legal help to those who need it.

CLCYR promotes universal access to justice and the elimination of poverty through legal representation, summary advice, referrals, public legal education and information, community development, and law reform. They deliver high quality services reflecting their commitment to respect, fairness, equality and empowerment.

The Clinic is responsible for serving the largest population in the province and one of the largest geographical clinic areas in Southern Ontario. With hopes to expand the Clinic's services to ensure that York Region's diverse needs are met, CLCYR is now looking to recruit an Executive Director.

This is a unique and exciting opportunity. CLCYR is looking for an Executive Director with experience and passion for work that combats social justice issues and poverty. If you are a progressive leader with experience working in social justice or poverty law, we would love to hear from you.

Closing for this opportunity is 5:00 PM, Friday, October 29, 2021.

Click here for more details on the position or get in touch with us directly by emailing info@charitycareerscanada.com

This search is being conducted on behalf of the Community Legal Clinic of York Region by Charity Careers Canada. We use our extensive non-profit experience to match Canadian charities and the agencies who serve them with excellent and inspired staff.

www.charitycareerscanada.com